

STUDENTS WHO FAILED TO MAKE VARSITY NOW HAVE A CHANCE TO STAR ON CLASS TEAM

OTHER MONTH OF FOOTBALL AT PENN, WITH BOB FOLWELL IN CHARGE OF STUDENT SQUAD

Maker Gridiron Tutor First Coach to Give Services for This Work—To Organize and Train Class Teams

STUDENTS at the University of Pennsylvania should avail themselves of the opportunity to join the football squad which is about to be organized by Coach Bob Folwell.

Football training is indispensable in army work. It teaches the men the proper way to act under fire, how to carry out orders without question and brings in part of the drill which must be indulged in by the soldiers.

IT IS seldom that a big college coach offers his services gratuitously, but this is what Folwell has done all the year.

Boxing Also Is a Great Aid to the Soldiers

Last Saturday we watched the soldiers go through a boxing drill in the camp. Fifty men commanded by Johnny Kibane, the featherweight champion, paired off across the field and worked under orders.

The army officers now are great boxing fans and they can't get enough of the sport.

"Mr. Kibane," he said, "how are the boys getting along with their boxing drill?"

"They are very good, sir," replied Johnny.

"Are they good enough to challenge the other camps?" was the next question.

"Certainly."

"That being the case," resumed the commander, "I wish you would select five men in the various classes and train them to meet five men from Camp Taylor for the championship."

"How about the length of the bouts?" asked Kibane.

"Four or six rounds nothing," almost shouted the commander.

"We will be to a FINISH. We want to win the championship, and that's the only way to settle it."

THUS we have an example of what the big men in military life think of boxing. Not only that, the soldiers themselves never miss an opportunity to don the gloves or witness a bout.

Leonard and Cline Will Settle Long-Standing Argument

ON WEDNESDAY evening, December 12, one of the most important battles of the year will be staged at the Olympia A. A. when Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, meets Irish Patsy Cline, the principal contender for the title.

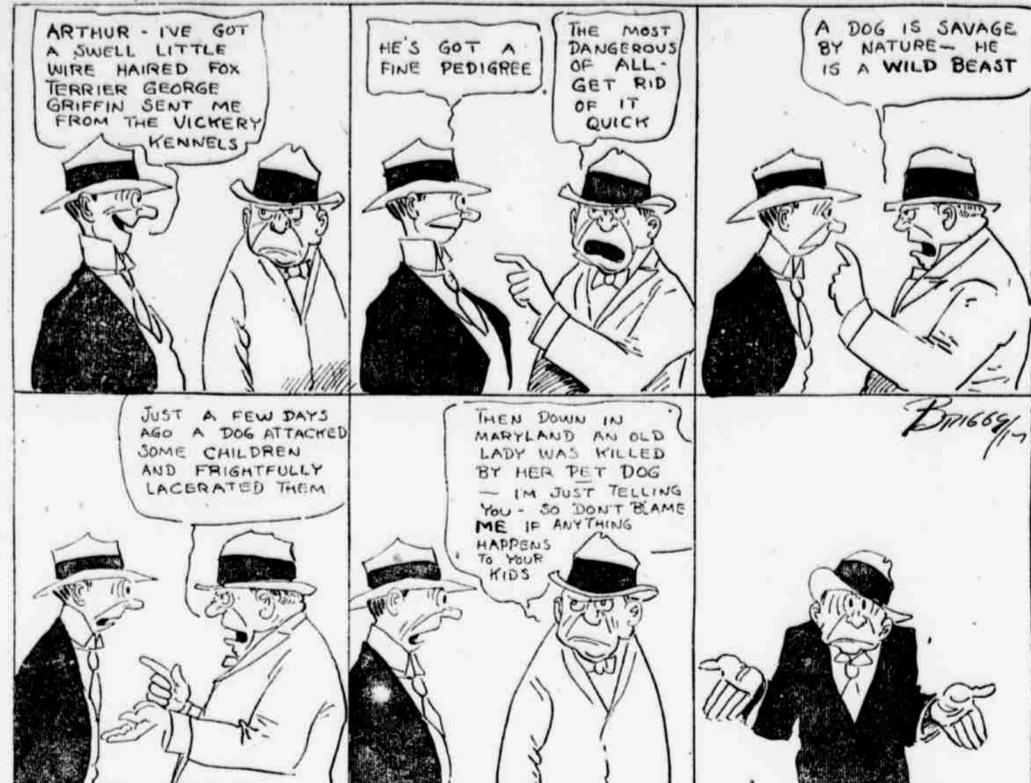

A couple of years ago Cline was a very ambitious youngster and was fighting all comers at the National A. C. Jack McGuigan took a liking to boy and used him nearly every other week.

Baseball Solons Are Ready to Talk Things Over

THE great national pastime will be placed on trial in New York and Chicago next week when the National and American League magnates meet for their annual confab.

It has been suggested that both leagues hold a joint meeting after their regular sessions and talk things over.

MACAN, GOLFING CRACK, LOSES FOOT

Chick Evans Praises Canadian Who Was Disabled in Big War

LEARNED IN IRELAND

By CHARLES (CHICK) EVANS

When the Canadian troops made their justly celebrated charge upon Vimy Ridge, one of the finest golfers in the Canadian Northwest was wounded in the foot; later blood-poisoning set in and amputation followed.

Mr. A. V. Macan, of the Victoria (B. C.) Golf Club, was one of the most interesting golfers I ever met, and I saw him for the first time in 1912 when a team of Middle West golfers, of which I was a member, went into the Northwest and made some surprising discoveries.

Learned Golf in Ireland

Mr. Macan learned to play golf, and soon a big reputation for it, in Ireland, and he was a delightfully genial player.

Thought of Game in Break

As soon as the war broke out this golfer enlisted, and it seems but yesterday that I had a letter from him over the wire asking for golf news.

Del Baker Enlists

Del Baker, who finished the 1917 season as catcher for the San Francisco team and might have been named for the Detroit Tigers next spring, has decided to answer his country's call and has joined the navy at San Francisco.

Pat Flynn in France

Pat Flynn, who was an Irish immigration agent, has been ordered to run for the Irish-American A. C. and make for the water. He is in the uniform of the United States, and is going to fight the Germans.

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

Evening Ledger Decisions of Last Night's Ring Bouts

Boston-Jack Bellman was too strong for Johnny Brown, the Red Cross boxer, in twelve rounds.

Battling Maston, a scrappier from Manhattan, will box the next in the Middleweight class at the Olympia on Friday night.

New York managers believe in having several good scrappers, although it may be noted that the industry only has one in each division.

For instance Billy Gibson, the man who has been in the news for some time, is a good fighter, while Dan McKelrick handles Eddie Barrford and Frankie Callahan.

Frankie Callahan's knockout in eight rounds came very near being a record.

St. Paul has contributed O'Connell, Gibbons, Ernie and other cruds, but there still is an offer to be heard from Billy Mikes, the light heavyweight, who recently lost Jack Dillon, but from that place Mikes will meet Fred Fulton in a ten-round bout at the Minneapolis Boxing Club on December 15.

Premier Hambl, of Denver, who staged the recent Leonard-Kilke match, has offered Battling Levinsky 30 per cent of the gross to see on the 15th.

Numerous letters are received from boxers desiring to offer their services for the telegraph fund.

Dick Curley, who assisted in arranging the match between Leonard and Kibane at the ball park, will conduct a boxing benefit for the Red Cross at New Haven, Friday night.

Chicago, Mass., is coming into prominence again with Boston and Lawrence. Soldier Jim, a former deflated Ted Russell, ten-round bout held at the Atlas A. C. of that place.

National League Head to Oppose Calamity Howling of Johnson

BIG BOUT NEXT WEEK

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.

A policy of anti-calamity howling will be placed squarely before National League magnates by Governor Tener at the meeting here next week.

Governor Tener declared today that so far he has received no word of a joint meeting in Chicago of National and American League magnates to discuss wartime economy.

The North Penn baseball team is preparing to start their season on Dec. 12.

The Seven Point Club wishes to arrange games with several and Philadelphia basketball teams having held in or out of town.

St. Stephen's, a first and second-class basketball team of Germantown, has a few open dates and would like to hear from teams having balls.

Richard A. M., a fourth-class basketball team, desires games at home or away.

GIANTS' RECORD OF TWENTY-SIX STRAIGHT GAMES WILL POSSIBLY NEVER BE EQUALLED IN LEAGUES

Braves' Tally of Four World Series, Matty's Three Consecutive Series Shut-outs and Cobb's Record of 248 Hits May Stand

By GRANTLAND RICE

OUT of the vast mass of records made on the ball field there are only one or two that will stand—that may, in fact, stand for all time, so far as the limited human mind can grasp its way through the mind-covered future.

It is possible, of course, that even a major league record of twenty-six straight victories, now held by the Giants, will be cracked.

It is equally possible that the Braves' record of four world series triumphs in succession may be equaled.

What chance has Matty's record of three consecutive world series shut-outs may be equaled.

One Almost Certainly

One record that is almost sure to last out the ages is that held by Cy Young.

Another Peak Holder

Nan Lajoie led a major league batting assault four years out of twenty starts.

What Wagner led a big league assault eight times in twenty years.

These magnates are so wide, so much beyond all competitors, that it seems impossible to figure another entry who can go further.

What Others?

Records of these two, in a relative and relative line, are known of no other player that are comparable.
